TRADE WIN

Weathervane, Chief of Staff Fredie Bowles is it by all accounts an insurance fellow. So how is it that a trade deal meant for the Sino-American companies and China resulted in a huge favor for the company? It seems like a win-win situation.

The deal, which includes the purchase of American goods by China, is expected to boost the economy of both countries. The $2 billion deal will help in reducing the trade deficit between the US and China.

BREEZY SPENDING

After a week of intense hurricane preparations, residents of Florida are enjoying the peaceful aftermath. The cleanup process is underway, and people are slowly returning to their homes.

Here are some tips to help you clean up:

1. Remove any debris from your property.
2. Check your roof for damage and make necessary repairs.
3. Contact your insurance company to file a claim.

THAT'S OUTLANDISH!

While the hurricane season is over, the cleanup process is just beginning. It's important to remain patient and stay safe.

Unsolicited Testimony

As the storm hits, we see a community coming together in the face of adversity. People are helping each other, and there's a sense of unity.

Here are some stories from those affected by the hurricane:

1. "I lost everything, but I'm grateful to be alive."
2. "We're all in this together, and we'll get through this."
3. "Thank you for your help, it means so much."

Despite the challenges, our community is resilient and strong.